OUR STORY

An Artistic Taste began its journey in 2010 as a small catering company in NYC. As our popularity grew we were determined to serve a larger population and vending NYC's largest curated festivals were the best way to do that.

HBO Film Festival in Bryant Park, Hester Street Fair, and Brooklyn's Wine Riot, were some hot spots that gave us the momentum we needed, but it wasn't until we had the opportunity to work with The Chocolate Expo that we were exposed to the beautiful communities in Monroe and Harriman, NY. We knew this was the home for our first An Artistic Taste Restaurant.

We have delighted many communities through vending and catering over the years, but we have a unique menu using locally grown ingredients that were meant for this community. We hope to make this restaurant a space to showcase our local vendors and farms and we are excited to begin this journey with you. We look forward to serving you for years to come.
